Pursuant to California Financial Code section 50200, Sterling was required to submit its audited financial statement for its fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 ("2002 audit report") to the Commissioner by April 15, 2003. The yearly audit report is to include a reconciliation of trust account(s) as of the audit date or the Uniform Single Attestation Program for Mortgage Bankers ("USAP"). Sterling has yet to file a reconciliation of trust account(s) or USAP for its 2002 audit report despite numerous reminders.

On or about December 12, 2002, the Commissioner notified Sterling in writing that its 2002 audit report was due April 15, 2003. Sterling submitted its 2002 audit report on or about June 6, 2003. However, the 2002 audit report failed to include a reconciliation of trust account(s) or USAP.

On or about February 5, 2004, Sterling was sent a letter demanding that the reconciliation of trust account(s) or USAP be filed no later than February 15, 2004. Sterling was notified in the letter that failure to file the reconciliation of trust account(s) or USAP could result in an assessment of penalties.

On or about May 14, 2004, Sterling was sent a further letter demanding that the reconciliation of trust account(s) or USAP be filed no later than May 24, 2004, and assessing Sterling a penalty of $1,000.00 pursuant to California Financial Code section 50326. Sterling was notified in the letter that failure to file the reconciliation of trust account(s) or USAP and/or pay the penalty by May 24, 2004 would result in an action to either suspend or revoke its license.

Sterling has yet to file the reconciliation of trust account(s) or USAP for its 2002 audit report or pay penalties as required by California Financial Code sections 50200 and 50326.

Ш

On or about November 20, 2003, Sterling notified the Commissioner that Sterling would merge with and into RBC Mortgage Company on January 1, 2004, with RBC Mortgage Company as the surviving entity, and that Sterling wished to surrender its CRMLA license. On or about December 4, 2003, a letter was sent to Sterling outlining the procedures for the surrender of Sterling's residential mortgage lender and loan servicer license. To date there has been no response to this letter, and the residential mortgage lender and loan servicer license of Sterling remains in

Pursuant to California Financial Code sections 50307 and 50401, all licensees under the CRMLA are required to file an annual Report of Principal Amount of Loans and Aggregate Amount of Loans Serviced ("loan report") on or before March 1 of each year for the preceding 12 month period ended December 31.

On or about January 18, 2005, a loan report form was sent to all CRMLA licensees with a notice that the loan report was due on March 1, 2005. Sterling failed to submit the loan report by the March 1, 2005 deadline.

On or about March 16, 2005, a follow up letter was sent to Sterling demanding the loan report be filed no later than March 26, 2005, and assessing Sterling a penalty of $1,000.00 pursuant to California Financial Code section 50326. Sterling was notified in the letter that failure to file the loan report and/or pay the penalty by March 26, 2005 would result in an action to either suspend or revoke its license.

Sterling has yet to submit the loan report or pay the penalty as required by California Financial Code sections 50307, 50401 and 50326.

VII

California Financial Code section 50326 provides in pertinent part as follows:

If any licensee fails to do any of the following, the licensee shall forfeit to the people of the state a sum of up to one hundred dollars ($100) for every day up to the tenth day: (a) to make any report required by law or by the commissioner within 10 days from the day designated for the making of the report, or within any extension of time granted by the commissioner Thereafter, any failure shall constitute grounds for the suspension or revocation of the license held by the residential mortgage lender or residential mortgage loan servicer.

| 2 | (a) The commissioner may, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to | |
|----|---|--|
| 3 | be heard, suspend or revoke any license if the commissioner finds that: (1) the licensee has violated any provision of this division or rule or order | |
| 4 | of the commissioner thereunder; or (2) any fact or condition exists that, if it had existed at the time of the original application for license, reasonably | |
| 5 | would have warranted the commissioner in refusing to issue the license originally. | |
| 6 | VIII | |
| 7 | The Commissioner finds that, by reason of the foregoing, Sterling has violated California | |
| 8 | Financial Code sections 50200, 50307, 50326 and 50401 and based thereon, grounds exist to revoke | |
| 9 | the residential mortgage lender and loan servicer license of Sterling. | |
| 10 | WHEREFORE, IT IS PRAYED that the residential mortgage lender and loan servicer license | |
| 11 | of Sterling be revoked and that pursuant to California Financial Code sections 50310 and 50311, | |
| 12 | Sterling be given a transition period of sixty (60) days within which to transfer its existing service | |
| 13 | accounts and to complete any loans for which it had commitments. | |
