

1 Future Investments agreed to return the full amount of the investment or “loan” to the investor at the 2 end of the loan term which was typically 12 months.

3 7. As of March 2009, Future Investments closed its Pasadena business location and ceased 4 issuing monthly interest payments to some California investors, who collectively had invested or 5 loaned millions of dollars to Future Investments.

6 8. In connection with the offer or sale of these securities, Future Investments and Sanchez made,
7 or caused to be made, misrepresentations of material fact or omitted to state material facts necessary
8 in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made,
9 not misleading. These misrepresentations and omissions included, but are not limited to the failure to 10 disclose to investors that the securities being offered in the form of promissory notes are not 11 qualified, in violation of section 25110 of the Corporate Securities Law of 1968.

12 Pursuant to section 25532 of the Corporate Securities Law of 1968, Future Investments USA
13 LLC and Miguel A. Sanchez, Jr. are hereby ordered to desist and refrain from the further offer or sale 14 in the State of California of securities, including but not limited to promissory notes, unless and until 15 qualification has been made under said law or unless exempt. The offer and sale of such securities is 16 subject to qualification under said law and such securities are being or have been offered for sale 17 without first being so qualified.

18 Further, the California Corporations Commissioner is of the opinion that the securities offered 19 by Future Investments USA LLC and Miguel A. Sanchez, Jr. were offered in this state by means of 20 written or oral communications that included untrue statements of material fact or omitted to state 21 material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under 22 which they were made, not misleading, in violation of section 25401 of the Corporate Securities Law 23 of 1968.

24 This order is necessary, in the public interest, for the protection of investors and consumers,
25 and consistent with the purposes, policies, and provisions of the Corporate Securities Law of 1968.
