21	Whereas, according to the documents filed with the Commissioner by Orangewood, Amanda

23	Whereas, on July 6, 1993, the Commissioner issued an Order To Discontinue Escrow

26	Whereas, for reasons stated in the documents listed below and dated July 6, 1993, which

- 3. Order Appointing Russell A. Greenwood as Conservator Pursuant to Section 17630 of the California Financial Code (the "Conservatorship Order").

Whereas, pursuant to both the Order Taking Possession and the Conservatorship Order, all persons, including Brandriff, who had possession, custody or control of any of the property, business and records of Orangewood, became obligated to turn over to the Conservator such property, business and records, including the Orangewood escrow agent's license.

Whereas, the Conservator took possession of the existing escrow files and records and all known escrow trust account(s) of Orangewood and pursuant to Section 17630 of the California Financial Code took actions to conserve those trust funds pending the further disposition of the business.

Whereas, the Conservator conducted a reconciliation of the escrow trust account of Orangewood and obtained the approval of the Commissioner to make a distribution of the Orangewood trust funds.

Whereas, the Conservator has distributed such escrow trust funds to the extent that the right to such funds was undisputed and escheated to the State of California any remaining escrow trust funds.

Whereas, the Conservator provided to the Commissioner a written accounting of the activities and expenses of the Orangewood Conservatorship, as well as a listing of any outstanding obligations and liabilities including litigation, against the general assets of Orangewood to the extent that such outstanding obligations and liabilities have come to the attention or knowledge of the Conservator.

Whereas, the Conservator retained the seized escrow records for the period mandated by Section 1737.1 of Title 10 of the California Code of Regulations prior to their destruction.
